First-Gen Career Cohort | Education + Human Services

The First-Gen Career Cohort is a professional development opportunity designed for juniors and seniors who are seeking to increase their career preparedness in the field of Education + Human Services. Explore the intersections of your first-gen identity and career goals through participating in workshops, presentations, speaker panels, and guided discussions.

Submit your interest to receive a notification when the program application opens on November 8, 2020 in honor of NASPA's First-Generation Celebration Day.
